

European Day of Languages 26 September 2006

The different European languages will be celebrated on 26 September. The main language exhibition will take place between 11.00 and 18.00 hours at Serieteket, Kulturhuset. Moreover, a wide range of activities will take place all over Stockholm throughout the day!

The Embassy of Switzerland organizes a Mini Film Festival together with the Italian Cultural Institute at their domicile on Gärdesgatan 14. In the afternoon from 13.00 to 17.00 hours, short films from Switzerland and Italy will be shown non-stop. The feature film, "Pane e Tulipani" by Swiss director Silvio Soldini will be screened at 18.00 followed by a tasting of Swiss and Italian wines and cheeses.

In addition to information about tourism and culture, you will find useful facts and recommendations about language learning opportunities in Switzerland and Italy both at Kulturhuset and at the Italian Cultural Institute throughout the day. There will also be information available relating to grants and funding for studying in Switzerland and Italy.

Entrance is free. The films are recommended for ages 14 and above. For the wine and cheese tasting a minimum age of 18 and registration is required.

For further information and registration please contact Benita Funke, Embassy of Switzerland on 08 676 79 23, or by mail to benita.funke@eda.admin.ch.